

Encouraging an in-person participation will be as follows:

- Services to remote participants: Live streaming of all oral sessions, recordings available during and after the event, Interaction via chat and Q&A
- Format for presentations :
Oral contributions → in person only (especially for Round Tables!)
Poster presentation → in person to be strongly favored, but some flexibility could be considered for people who be absolutely unable to travel
- Single fee for online or remote participation (with possible switch between onsite and online)
- The onsite participants will also have access to the online platform (on-demand recorded sessions, presentation files, papers, chat with other participants, etc.)
